MARGIN QUESTIONS

1) What would happen if the child tried to walk fast? Why?

Ans: If the child tried to walk fast, it would fall because he/she is very small to walk fast or to match the speed of its father, walking at a good speed.

2) Does the word walk refer only to the act of walking? What does the poet actually mean to say?

Ans: No, the word walk does not refer only to the act of walking. It refers to father's actions, thoughts and his way of living and behaving.

3) What do the 'footsteps' of the father refer to?

Ans: Here the footsteps of father refer to father's way of speaking and behaving, his actions and his characteristics that make a person successful in life.
