About the text

ALCHEMY:

An ancient forerunner of Chemistry, about attempts to convert base metals into gold.

(Here, it refers to a mysterious, magical process of transforming things.)

The text is about the transformative influence of nature on all beings. The message is that we should open our eyes to the marvels of nature and try to imbibe the lessons they teach us.

Nature gives us timeless wisdom about love, learning, compassion, a positive attitude & courage to overcome obstacles & encourages us to raise our consciousness and reaffirm our commitment to live life to the fullest.

Summary of the text

The Alchemy of Nature explains the power of elements of nature.

Nature has the power to soothe us, nourish us, relax us and enhance our well-being. So, we should go to nature to rejuvenate our being.

We should learn from nature and transform our life. Like-

- Hibiscus gives the message of living life to the fullest.
- Water can carve and sculpt the hard rock with its perseverance.
- Tiny blades of grass growing through the cracks in the concrete pavements gives us the message that there is always an opening.
- Like that the author has narrated the magical transforming power of nature.

It can change our lives in the most positive way.

Margin questions:

1. How does the Hibiscus flower make the most of its short life span?

Ans: The Hibiscus flower smiles with the sun and dances with the wind and by next evening it dries and falls off. Although it comes to life only for a day it spreads beauty and joy. So, it makes the most of its short life span.

2. What role does nature play in our lives?

Ans: Nature relaxes us and enhances our well-being. It soothes and nurtures us as well as fulfils and motivates us. It also whispers and commands.

3. Who is stronger- water or rocks? Justify your response.

Ans: The water is stronger than the rocks because, by persistently flowing over the rocks every day, it is able to carve, sculpt and shape the rocks as it desires.

4. What teaches us that hard times do not last Forever? How?

Ans: A tree that is bare of all leaves in the cold winter months is once again full of leaves fruits and flowers as spring sets in, thereby teaching us that hard times do not last forever.

5. Guess the meaning of:
