

Std.10th Bridge Course Activity

Bridge Course -Test No. 3

Std:10th (Marathi Medium)

Subject: English

Marks:20

Q.1. Develop a story with the help of the following beginning. Suggest a suitable title. (4)

Once there was a poor boy. His name was Dinesh. He had no.....

Q.2. Observe the picture and write down what the children are doing. (3)

Q.3.A) Do as directed. (2)

Identify a quotation and an Idiomatic Expression from the below sentences and write down.

1. pull yourself together...
2. "Live as if you were to die tomorrow."

B) Write a dialogue between you and your mother about making tea. (3)

Q.4. A) Read the passage carefully and paraphrases the underlined words/phrases. (2)

I like the poem for the very reason that anyone else would like it for its humour. I also like the poem because the poet balances the exaggeration with seemingly convincing logic.

B) Do as directed. (6)

1)1. If you study regularly, you will get good marks.

2. They turned the pages which were yellow and crinkly.

(Underline the subordinate clauses in both the sentences and name them.) (2)

2)1. Mathilde saw some bracelets. (Change into passive voice) (1)

2. The story was told by the writer. (Change into active voice) (1)

3)1. She likes to sing songs. (Underline the infinitive) (1)

2. Playing violin is the best hobby. (Underline the gerund) (1)

Q.1. Develop a story with the help of the following beginning. Suggest a suitable title. (4)

Once there was a poor boy. His name was Dinesh. He had no.....

A friend in a need is a friend indeed'

Once there was a poor boy. His name was Dinesh. He had no parents. Dinesh was living with his aunt and uncle. They were too so poor. But he had a rich friend Rohit. They were the best friends. They were learning the same class. They were good in studies. They almost secured equal marks. They loved each other. They passed their SSC examination with good marks. Dinesh and Rohit parted from each other after SSC examination. Rohit continued his higher education. He completed his graduation in hotel management. After the completion of his education. He set up a big hotel in his town. On the other hand. Dinesh could not continue his education because of lack of money. He worked as a newspaper boy for some years. He earned his living somehow. One day Dinesh went to the hotel of Rohit. Rohit recognised him and asked him, "What do you do? Dinesh replied, I am poor as well as jobless." Rohit felt pity for Sumit. He decided to help him. He asked Dinesh, "Do you like to start panstall in front of my hotel?" Dinesh agreed with Rohit. He helped Dinesh to start pan stall. Dinesh did his job well. Both Dinesh and Rohit lived happily In this way, Rohit helped Dinesh So, we should help our friends. We should remember A friend in a need is a friend indeed'

Q.2. Observe the picture and write down what the children are doing.

(3)

In this above picture, I can see many children are doing various activities. Some children are playing football in the garden. One girl is swinging. There is girl who is reading a book under a tree. One more girl is there who is painting a picture. A boy is sitting on a branch and watching something through his binocular. All the children are very happy.

Q.3.A) Do as directed.

(2)

Identify a quotation and an Idiomatic Expression from the below sentences and write down.

1. pull yourself together...

Ans: pull yourself together... (Phrase) to become calm and behave normally again after being angry or upset:

Just pull yourself together. There's no point crying about it.

2. "Live as if you were to die tomorrow."

Ans:

B) Write a dialogue between you and your mother about making tea. (3)

Mother : Meena will you prepare tea for me beta?

Meena : Ok Mom. Will you help me?

Mother: No problem, I will teach you how to make tea.

Meena :Thanks Mom.

Mother: First of all take a steel bowl and put one cup of water and milk in it. keep it on gas for some time for boiling .

Meena : Ok mom.

mother : After boiling this mixture, we have to put half spoonful of tea powder. and one spoon of sugar and keep it boiling for some time.

Meena: Yes I did it. Thanks mom for helping me to do tea .

Mother : Welcome my child.

Q.4. A) Read the passage carefully and paraphrases the underlined words/phrases. (2)

I like the poem for the very reason that anyone else would like it for its humour. I also like the poem because the poet balances the exaggeration with seemingly convincing logic.

Ans: i) exaggeration: the fact of making something seem larger, more important, better, or worse than it really is:

ii) convincing: able to make you believe that something is true or right:

B) Do as directed. (6)

1)1. If you study regularly, you will get good marks.

2. They turned the pages which were yellow and crinkly.

(Underline the subordinate clauses in both the sentences and name them.) (2)

Ans:

1)1. If you study regularly, you will get good marks.

(Adverb Clause Of Condition)

2. They turned the pages which were yellow and crinkly.

(Adjective Clause)

2)1. Mathilde saw some bracelets. (Change into passive voice) (1)

Ans: Some bracelets were seen by Mathilde.

2. The story was told by the writer. (Change into active voice) (1)

Ans: The writer told the story.

3)1. She likes to sing songs. (Underline the infinitive) (1)

Ans: She likes to sing songs.

2. Playing violin is the best hobby. (Underline the gerund) (1)

Ans: Playing violin is the best hobby.

Please follow and like us:

 Follow

 Share

 Tweet

 Save