In the meanwhile, the disease worked its way into Stephen's body and left him disabled. He began studying the concept of "Black Holes", to get his Ph.D. By this time, he was confined to a wheelchair and was rapidly losing control of his hands and speech. The study of "black holes" sparked his imagination with bright ideas. He made many epoch-making statements that shook established theories. Scientists believe that the universe began with a "Big Bang". To explain this concept better, Stephen invented what is known as "Lie Algebra". Though confined to a wheel chair with no control over his body save a finger and with a computer to help him express his thoughts. Dr. Hawking is an authority on profound subjects of science. Numerous honorary doctorates and awards have been bestowed on him. He is a Fellow of The Royal Society and a Member of the US National Academy of Sciences. In spite of being considered Einstein's equal in intelligence, Dr. Hawking is a very humble man. A simple, down to earth man, he has authored many books dealing with his awesome ideas keeping a layman in mind. His writing is full of wit and humour. His style is so lucid that non-scientists can also understand him. His book, "A Brief History of Time" is one of the best-selling books of our times.

(ii) Mary Kom's coach (Charies Atkinson)

(iii) The place where Mary Kom practised hard to prepare for the Olympics (Pune)

(iv) Her opponent who was clever and a counter-puncher (Adams)

In an exclusive interview with Sportskeeda correspondent Taruka Srivastava, Olympic Bronze medallist Mary Kom talked about her preparation for the Olympics and her elation at winning a medal.

Interviewer: First things first-you're the first Indian female boxer to win an Olympics medal for India. Has the feeling completely sunk in?

Mary Kom: I am really happy with my achievement and yes it is yet to sink in. I am just so exhilarated.

Interviewer: You were the only female representative from India in boxing. Did that put additional pressure on you?

Mary Kom: No, not at all. I was pretty confident about myself. I knew.

Interviewer: Your coach Charles Atkinson was not allowed to accompany you to the Olympics. How did that affect your preparations?

Mary Kom: Well I did miss him there but thankfully, we had already done our homework and I was well prepared.

Interviewer: During your preparations for the Olympics, you sparred with the male boxers of the Indian contingent. Who was your favourite sparring partner?

Mary Kom: (Laughs) Well, I trained hard in Pune and the male boxers were kind enough to practice with me whenever I required them. To name a favourite would be unfair.

Interviewer: You were quoted saying "Adams was very clever, a counter - puncher but, although she carried power, she wasn't very tactical. I was scoring but the judges were not pressing the buttons." Do you think dodgy judging was part of the reason for your loss in the semi - finals?

Mary Kom: Yes, I think some of the decisions were unfortunate and did not work to my benefit.

(B2) State the qualities of Mary Kom that can be understood from the passage. 2

Ans.:

Mary Kom is the first Indian female boxer to win an Olympic medal for India. She was pretty confident and she was trained hard for the competition.

Ans.:

(i) losing x winning (ii) unsure x sure

(iii) unkind x kind (iv) worst x unfortunate

(B4) Do as directed. 2

1. How did that affect your preparations?

(Rewrite it as an Assertive Sentence)

(ii) We had already done our homework. (Change the voice)

Ans.:

(i) Your preparations affected that. or That affected your preparations.

(ii) Our home works had been already done by us.

(B5) Do you think Mary Kom was justified in not fighting to get the win she deserved? 2

Ans.:

No. I think Mary Kom was not justified in not fighting to get the win she deserved, because she was scoring but the judges were not pressing the buttons at right time.

A Teenager's Prayer
Each day brings new beginnings,
Decisions I must make.
I am the only one to choose
The road that I will take.
I can choose to take the road of life,
That leads to great success
Or travel down the darkened road,
That leads to great distress.
Please open up my eyes, dear Lord,
That I might clearly see
Help me stand for what is right,
Bring out the best in me.
Help, Lord, to just say "no"
When temptation comes my way,
That I might keep my body clean
And fit for life each day.
When my teenage years are over,
I know that I will see
That life is lived its very best
With you walking next to me.

The game's popularity spread rapidly throughout the world in the 1800s. In the 19th Century, British Sailors, Traders, and soldiers took the game with them as they travelled and introduced it to the people they met along the way. This helped spread the game to the corners of the world where people learned the rules of the game. An association of people agreed on a set of laws, or rules, used for the game that would be "universally applicable to all who played it. Children and adults alike began to play football and share their love of the sport. The game is also popular among non-competitive athletes because it is an effective form of exercise as a single player runs about 7 miles on an average during one game. The United States has almost 18 million football players, which is more than any other country. This sport is a favourite pastime of people in every country of the world. The FIFA World Cup is the biggest football tournament in the world that is held every four years. Golden Jubilee of Our School

Honourable Chief Guest, respected Headmaster and teachers and dear friends,

On the occasion of Golden Jubilee of our school that means our school has completed a successful journey of 50 years from 1968, I am very much happy to address before all of you.

First of all, I would like to tell all of you that our school was established by Reverend D'Souza in 1968 with the intension of providing basic education to all the needy people of our locality. With the hard-work and good academic achievements, our school became a high school with junior college for higher education in 1991. That's was a great milestone of our school.

From that time, various academic facilities and features were launched in our school as per need like e-library, well-equipped science laboratory, computer class etc. And, students who have passed out from the school, have become successful businessmen, teachers, lawyers, engineers etc. and who enlightened our school very much.

I wish for the school to achieve more success in future with all of your support.

I wind up my speech with special thanks to all of you.

Thank you so much.

Have a nice day!

Ans.:

Story Writing:

'Unforgettable Kindness'

At one evening I was leaving a store, I returned to my car only to find that I'd locked my keys and cell phone inside. A teenager riding his bike saw me kick a tire and say a few choice words. "What's wrong?" he asked. I explained my situation.

“But even if I could call my wife,” I said, “she can’t bring me her car key, since this is our only car.” He handed me his cell phone. “Call your wife and tell her I’m coming to get her key.” “That’s seven miles round trip.” “Don’t worry about it.” An hour later, he returned with the key. I offered him some money, but he refused. “Let’s just say I needed the exercise,” he said. He will never know how badly we needed help that evening, but I will never forget his kindness.
