7. Write a book review of the book *The Old Man and The Sea

The Old Man and The Sea

The Old Man and the sea is a masterpiece from the pen of well-known American writer Ernest Hemingway. The old man and the sea is a Nobel Prize winner. The major theme of this novel is the struggle between man and nature. However, it touches moral and spiritual truth in life. Santiago is the hero in this novel. He is an old poor Cuban fisherman. He has gone eighty-four days without catching a fish. At last on the eightieth day he is successful in catching an eighty-pound marlin. Because of his old age and less power he couldn't draw it safely and completely, but only its skeleton. He remained a failure in his job. Not in life. The novelist has used innovative and modern technique of third person narration. The setting of the novel shows marine life. Language used in this novel is the language of a fisherman. The novel mingles between past and present. The critics interpreted the meaning of the novel. Some think that it is the story of failure and setbacks. Some think that it is about humanity, faith and ambition. The title itself is suggestive. It is a suitable title. The title indicates that the existence of a single man is superior to the vast ocean. The novel gives us the message of being realistic as well as optimistic. I think that the great message of this novel is that man is not made for defeat, man can be destroyed but not defeated. Let us read "The old man and the sea".

8. Write a book review of the book *'THE EDIBLE WOMAN'

"THE EDIBLE WOMAN"

The Edible Woman is the first but not the most Canadian novel from the pen of Margaret Atwood. The Edible Woman is a realistic novel. The exploitation of women in the male dominated society is the major theme in this novel. Marian MacAlphie is the central character of this novel. She is engaged with a handsome, young lawyer Peter. She has realized different strategies of exploitation by Peter. She wants to avoid her marriage with Peter. At the end of the novel, she has baked a large cake in the shape of a woman and offered it to Peter to eat and ran away before marriage. The title is meaningful, suggestive and metaphorical. It suggests that woman is mere tool and object for eating and using to man. The novelist has used images and symbols. She has used local animal imagery to describe activities of Marian. Food is a major symbol used to explore the theme of the novel. The novel depicts a revolutionary view of life. The novel belongs to art for life sake category. It vividly presents the realistic social condition of Canada. The message of the novel is that every woman should create their own self-identity. Let us read "The Edible woman".

9. Write a book review of the book

THE HOME COMING

THE HOME COMING. The Home Coming is a collection of short stories. These stories are from the pen of Nobel laureate Rabindranath Tagore. The title of this collection has been derived from one of the stories. The home coming is a story of a boy called Phatik Chakravorti. He has gone away from home. He wants to come back home in order to find peace and rest. He has experienced many ups and downs in High School life. He has a kind of homesick in that strange land. The central character Phatik is the representative of all teenagers. Teenager's inability to live at strange and new places is stressed through these stories. Teenagers' point of view is vividly depicted in these stories. I also feel sympathy for the teenager's homesick. The Home Coming is a link between cause and effect. The writer has used flashback technique for its narration. Flashback technique helps to achieve emotional impact. Simplicity is the remarkable feature of Tagore's writing. Language used in these stories is as man speaks to man. There is no single drawback in the presentation of stories. Let us enjoy The Home Coming to see our reflection.

10. Write a review of a play you read or liked the most.

Love Birds

LOVE BIRDS' is a play of writer and director Girish Joshi. His plays are very modern in terms of plot, structure and design 'Love Birds' centres on a dashing whiz adman Vishwas Inamdar. He meets with a near fatal car accident. He loses his K memory, recovered with efficient surgery and caring of his wife Devika. His memory is not still recovered completely. Vishwas tries to reconstruct his past with the information from office and home. He is surprised when he finds a bill for a 1000 "Love Birds'. He has purchased them but not gifted them to his wife. Moreover, he is baffled by the intimacy of his secretary. When pet shop owner Sane turns out to be a private detective Vishwas is troubled by the past. Then there is a sequence of murder, betrayal and Mayhem. The writer creates a smart plot which keeps the audience on the edge of the seat throughout. The protagonist Aniket Vishwarao is impressively vulnerable in his role. Amruta Subhash delivers a well-rehearsed performance. Ketaki Saraf is vivacious in her role. The sets are simply superb. Nerendra Bhide's music is effective. Geeta Godbole's costumes are refreshingly modern and apt.

11. Write a review on any TV show that you like the most.

Use the following points in your write-up.

‘Swarajya Rakshak Sambhaji’

- You may also add your own points.
- Name of the TV show Timings of the show Favourite characters
- Language used Type of the show
- Reasons for your fondness of the show ‘Swarajya Rakshak Sambhaji’

I watch different TV serials but Swarajya Rakshak Sambhaji is my favourite TV show. It is a biographical and historical TV show. It is based on the life of King Sambhaji. It takes the spectators to the Shivkalin history. It is a regular TV show. It is telecasted between 9.00 pm to 9.30 pm. There are different characters. But I like the character Chhatrapati Sambhaji Maharaj and Rajmata Jijau. Amol Kolhe performed the role of Chhatrapati Sambhaji Maharaj. The serial is produced by Pinku Biswas. The direction of Kartik Rajaram Kendhe is excellent. The music of Satyajit Rande is melodious. The serial is in Marathi language. I find archaic use of Marathi in this TV show. I like this TV show too much because it is a historical TV show. It creates historical spirit in us. It teaches me how to live in this world. In this way, Swarajya Rakshak Sambhaji is the best TV show. Its spectators are increasing day by day.
