ii) His mother had picked a piece of the fruit.

iii) Maddened by hunger the seagull dived at the fish.

iv) The wind rushed against his breast feathers.

Ans: i) True ii) False iii) True iv) True

His mother had picked up a piece of the fish and was flying across to him with it. He leaned out eagerly, tapping the rock with his feet, trying to get nearer to her as she flew across. But when she was just opposite to him, she halted, her wings motionless, the piece of fish in her beak almost within reach of his beak. He waited a moment in surprise, wondering why she did not come nearer, and then, maddened by hunger, he dived at the fish. With a loud scream he fell outwards and downwards into space. Then a monstrous terror seized him and his heart stood still. He could hear nothing. But it only lasted a minute. The next moment he felt his wings spread outwards. The wind rushed against his breast feathers, then under his stomach, and against his wings. He could feel the tips of his wings cutting through the air. He was not falling headlong now. He was soaring gradually downwards and outwards. He was no longer afraid. He just felt a bit dizzy. Then he flapped his wings once and he soared upwards. "Ga, ga, ga, Ga, ga ga, Gaw-col-ah," his mother swooped past him, her wings making a loud noise. He answered her with another scream. Then his father flew over him screaming. He saw his two brothers and his sister flying around him curveting and banking and soaring and diving.

ii) When others doubt us, we must trust ourselves, iii) When we are being lied about, we must not deal in lies,

iv) When we are being hated, we must not give way to hating.

If you can keep your head when all about you
Are losing theirs and blaming it on you;
If you can trust yourself when all men doubt you,
But make allowance for their doubting too;
If you can wait and not be tired by waiting,
Or, being lied about, don't deal in lies,
Or being hated, don't give way to hating,
And yet don't look too good, nor talk too wise:

A2) What advice does your father give you? Write about it in 5-8 lines.

Ans: My father tells me to study regularly and not just at the time of exams. My father advises me to wake up early in the morning and take exercise. He also advises me to choose my friends carefully because he believes that man is known by the company, he keeps.

ii) waiting - hating

iii) lies - wise

Q.3 B) Read the poem. Write critical appreciation of the poem in about 12 to 15 sentences with the help of following points.

Stopping by woods on a snowy evening
Whose woods these are I think I know.
His house is in the village, though;
He will not see me stopping here
To watch his woods fill up with snow.
My little horse must think it queer
To stop without a farmhouse near
He gives his harness bells a shake
To ask if there is some mistake.
The only other sound's the sweep
Of easy wind and downy flake.
The woods are lovely, dark and deep,
But I have promises to keep,
Between the woods and frozen lake
The darkest evening of the year.
And miles to go before I sleep,
And miles to go before I sleep.

-Robert Frost

i) Title of the poem - 1/2

ii) Poet of the poem - 1/2

SECTION IV : NON TEXTUAL PASSAGE

Q.4 A) Read the passage and carry out the activities. [10]

A1) List different purposes for which human beings use animals. 2

Ans:

i)for food

ii) for entertainment

iii) pleasure i

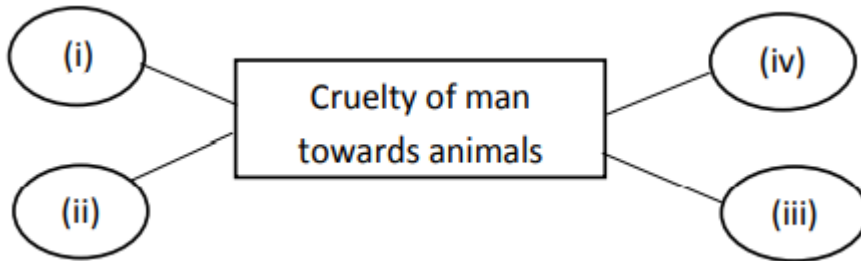

v) convenience

Animals have been a neglected lot all over the world. God must have been very angry over the way men and women treat animals! God created all life forms with equal care and love. As man loves freedom, so do all forms of animals. Man uses animals for his pleasure, entertainment and convenience. This is man's cruelty to animals! Have animals ever encroached into man's world and hunted him? Has any animal ever encaged any man? Animals are equally precious and should equally share God's earth and should not be caged at all. They should be in the wilderness with their families. Animals should live in their natural habitat and be allowed to roam freely because animals' natural instincts will vanish if they are caged in zoos. Also, some animals are forced to live in climates that they are not accustomed to and this is cruel. For example, the elephant is accustomed to live in tropical climates but is forced to live in zoos in cold countries like Canada. There are many real life incidents in all parts of the world that are touching examples of animals' understanding and care towards human beings. Some famous books such as 'The Jungle Book', 'The War Horse', and certain movies such as 'The Eight Below', 'War Horse', 'Jungle Book', etc. endorse the argument that animals are not only emotional, they are intelligent also.

We must stop exploiting and killing them for fun and food. Besides, it is not morally and ethically right to deprive someone of the right of living in their own home. Forests and their other habitats are the natural home of animals.

We must let them live there. We must follow the precept of 'Live and let live'. Being the most intelligent animal, it is man's responsibility to take care of the less endowed animals.

A2) Complete the following web. 2

Ans: Cruelty of man towards animals:

- i) exploiting them for fun
- ii) killing them for food
- iii) taking away their freedom
- iv) putting them in cages

A3) Make four words of minimum 3 letters each using the letters in the given word. 2

ENCROACHMENT

Ans: create, mean, coat, more, tear, mere

A4) 2

i) Animals are not only emotional but also intelligent. (Rewrite the sentence using 'as well as')

Ans: Animals are intelligent as well as emotional.

ii) Animals should live in their natural habitat. (Add question tag)

Ans: Animals should live in their natural habitat, shouldn't they?

A5) "Live and let live". Expand this idea on the basis of the passage. 2

Ans: Just as we have a right to live on this earth, animals, birds and all living creatures have a right to live on this earth. Forests are the natural habitats for wild animals. We are destroying their natural habitats by cutting trees in the forest. We catch animals, train them to work for us, put them in a cage and use them for our benefits. Animals also deserve freedom. We have no right to imprison them and take away their freedom. Hence, we should live our own life and allow animals also to live their life in their own natural way. We should not ill-treat animals or be cruel to them. We should not interfere with the lives of animals. We should follow the policy of 'Live and let live'.

Q.4 B) Write a summary of the above passage and suggest a suitable title for it. [5]

Ans: Live and Let Live

Animals have been neglected all over the world. God created all life forms with equal care and love. Everyone loves freedom. Using animals for pleasure, entertainment and convenience shows man's cruelty. Animals should live in their natural habitat and be allowed to roam freely. They should not be forced to live in climates that they are not accustomed to. We can see many incidents showing how understanding and caring animals are towards human beings. It is not morally and ethically right to deprive someone of the right of living in their own home. Being the most intelligent animal, it is man's responsibility to take care of the less endowed animals.

SECTION V : WRITING SKILL

Q.5 A) Do any one of the following - A1 or A2. [5]

BRAVERY DESERVES REWARD

Shivapur, August 31: Two days ago, the local grocer's daughter, Reena, was saved from almost certain in death. At about 9 am she accidentally fell into the well. The entire village came to the spot in response to her screams. No one dared to jump in. Rohan Mithi, 12 year old son of the local sweetmeat shop owner, who happened to pass by, jumped in and without heeding warnings or caring for personal safety, saved the drowning girl.

A1) Informal Letter:

Imagine you were an eye witness to the incident. Write a letter to your friend describing the incident in detail.

Ans:

Sai Krupa chawl,
Thangewadi,
Shivapur - 416519,
Dist. Sindhudurg.
8 September, 2019.

Dear Ravi,

Only the other day I was eye-witness to an incredible act of bravery in our village, you may have read about it in the newspaper, but I must narrate to you what I saw in my own words! Reena Yadav is the little four-year-old daughter of our local grocer. On 29th August 2018, at about 9 a.m., she accidentally fell into a well near her house. There were screams and confusion all round. I do not know how to swim. The entire village had gathered there, but no one dared to dive in to save the girl. The girl's head was bobbing in and out of the water.

Then twelve-year-old Rohan Miti happened to pass by. He is the son of Shivram, the local sweetmeat shop owner. He pushed his way through the crowd and without heeding warnings or caring for personal safety jumped into the well. He caught little Reena by her shoulders and kept her head above water until a rope was thrown in.

The entire village of Thangewadi feels that Rohan deserves a special award for bravery if possible, at the hands of the Chief Minister of our state. We have written a letter to the local MLA, signed by all those present at the scene. We hope that Rohan would be rewarded for his grand act of courage.

Will let you know if there are further developments.

Your affectionate friend,

X.Y.Z

A2) Formal Letter:

Write a letter to your local MLA asking him/her to recommend Rohan's name for an award for bravery.

Subject: Recommendation for Bravery Award (for Rohan Mithi)

Dear Sir,

This is to bring to your attention the fact that Rohan Mithi, a resident of this town has just recently performed a feat exceptional for its bravery and selflessness. The incident was recently featured in the local newspaper. I am enclosing a news clipping with this letter.

On 29th August 2018, at about 9 a.m. Reena Yadav, the four - year- old daughter of our local grocer, accidentally fell into a well near her house. There were screams all around and a lot of confusion. No one, dared to do anything to save the girl. Precious minutes were slipping away. Then twelve - year old Rohan Mithi happened to pass by. He is the son of Shivram, the local sweetmeat shop owner. He rushed through jumped into the well. He caught the girl by her shoulders and kept her head above water until a rope was thrown in. Then with the girl on his back, he came out of the well.

The entire village was witness to this act of bravery and we feel that Rohan deserves a special Award for Bravery, if possible, at the hands of the Chief Minister of our state. I have enclosed a letter signed by all those present at the scene. Kindly consider our fervent request.

Yours sincerely,

XYZ

Q.5 B) Do any one of the following - B1 or B2. [5]

Tanmay: Yes, I know. I think of it as my responsibility towards my country.

Mahesh: Well, in that case, I wish you all the best. May you be the best you can!

Tanmay: Thank you, Mahesh!

B2) Speech Writing.

You have to deliver a speech in the class on 'How to achieve great success'. Prepare a speech with the help of the points given below:

Points: success - 1% inspiration and 99% Perspiration; no achievement without hard work; no success by neglecting duties; examples; daily study, revision, practice required for success in the SSC; no study - no success; life is a challenge; face it boldly and be successful.

Ans: HOW TO ACHIEVE GREAT SUCCESS

Dear teacher and fellow students,

Edison, the great scientist, said that success is 1% inspiration and 99% Perspiration. How true it is! Without hard work, toil, perseverance, there can be no achievement. Take the life of any great person and you will see the truth of it. Success does not come by neglecting our duties or shirking our responsibilities or lazing away all the time. Great heights can only be achieved by constant climbing. Sherpa Tenzing and Edmund Hillary did not fly to the top of mount Everest. They climbed. It took them days and they had to face many difficulties.

Without regular and hard study no students of the SSC can hope to do well, even the most brilliant. Constant study, revision, practice - all these are necessary. Then only can one hope to make it into the Merit list. It can never be that a student who doesn't study at all achieves a distinction in the Board examinations.

So, let us then be up and doing. Let us face the challenges of the life boldly; let us be successful!

Thank you.

Q.6 A) Do any one of the following - A1 or A2.

A1) Information transfer:

The table given below shows features of an I-phone and an I-pad. Develop a paragraph based on the information given. You may begin as I phone is basically a Smartphone, whereas....

I phone

- Smartphone

Q.6 B) Do any one of the following - B1 or B2. [5]

B1) Read the following headline. Write the date-line, introduction and short continuing paragraph.

Women's organizations start tree plantation programme.

Ans: Women's organizations start tree plantation programme.

Navi Mumbai, 15 June: The Navi Mumbai Women's Organization conducted a Tree Plantation Programme at New Panvel yesterday. 770 saplings of various types were planted at the sides of the road and in the premises of local industries.

"Though people are aware of the importance of trees, they are too lethargic to actually plant trees," said Ms. Shilpa Marathe, the president of the Organization. "But now that we have done the initial job, the people have promised to look after the saplings and water them regularly." All the saplings belong to tough and fast-growing species and require little maintenance. Tree guards, donated by the local industries, have also been put round the saplings. We hope that the next monsoon brings us a green and clean New Panvel!

B2) Write a story of 180 - 200 words ending with ' _____ that is how Kunal got what he had always wanted'. Give it a suitable title. Ans:

Flight of Fancy

Kunal was a smart and sincere boy, who loved airplanes more than any other thing. Since his early childhood, he had been attracted to them and his interest kept growing with time. He dreamt of becoming a military pilot when he grew up and that was the only thing he wanted. He balanced his studies with his passion, and continued learning as much as he could about flying. In order to stay fit, he exercised and even played on the football team of his college. In spite of achieving other awards, he kept training hard and preparing so he could enroll at the flight training academy. However, during a match, he hurt himself and told that he wouldn't qualify for the Air Force with his injury. He had to give up his dream with a heavy heart. However, he chose to serve his country by becoming an IAS officer. Despite becoming a successful official, he never forgot his old dream. On the day of his retirement, he was offered to fly in a jet fighter for his service. This was a mark of honour as well as appreciation for Kunal and he couldn't be any happier.
