Importance of online Education.

Online education refers to the use of electronic applications and learning processes. For online education, important connections like internet connection, computers, smartphones, etc. are required.

Education is an important part of our life, it can also make our future and if it is not taken care of properly, it can also spoil. The process of learning and teaching in online education takes place through the electronic medium that is done through digital platforms. It enables students to gain educational experience through technology.

Online education includes an electronic way of learning and teaching. Online education takes place outside the classroom through digital platforms. Online education can be delivered in the form of lessons, animation, audio, video, and images.

In the changing era, where everything is going digital today, the field of education is also not behind in this matter. The Pandemic like Coronavirus (or Covid-19) has affected almost all areas of human life, including education.

Therefore, there is a need to promote online education today.

The Government of India has launched the ‘Bharat Padhe Online Campaign’ to reduce the loss in education in this era of the Covid-19 Pandemic, which underscores the growing importance of online education. In fact, the importance of online education will continue to increase in the present as well as in the future, but we should keep in mind that there are some practical drawbacks along with the benefits of online education, due to which it needs to be adopted carefully.

COVID-19 has closed schools around the world. Globally, more than 1.2 billion children are out of the classroom. As a result, education has changed considerably with the rise of e-learning, under which teaching is carried out on digital platforms.

Due to the high demand for online education, many online learning platforms are providing their services free of cost, including platforms like BYJU’S, Unacademy, Careerwill, CBSE Digital Education, etc.

My father, a Hero:

My father is a wonderful person and a great father. I see him as my hero. They are a support base for our family. My grandmother often tells us how obedient they were when they were young children. My father always obeyed his parents and constantly strived to achieve his academic goals. He was also very good at sports. Apart from this, he was also always ready to help his fellow students. He always helped my grandmother with her household chores in her spare time. His dedication to his work and his supportive nature inspire us to become better human beings.

Even today his nature has not changed at all. He is always appreciated for his hard working nature and has helped in achieving many milestones for his department. His officers and other colleagues have always praised him for his dedication towards work. They also give equal importance to domestic tasks. They also help my mother with her household chores. They also help us with our homework and other assignments. Whenever time is available they play with us and take us out regularly for our entertainment. Also whenever our neighbours and relatives need help, they are always ready to help us.

Another virtue of my father is that he is a believer of overall living faith. He teaches us how to take utmost care of our physical health by eating the right foods, taking proper rest and exercising. After all, a healthy body produces a healthy mind.

My take away/Today I learnt:

- 1) How to construct the sentences while developing an Essay.
- 2) I took part in the Essay competition.
- 3) I learnt how to write in own words and own hand writing in English.
