

The Little Girl

Katherine Mansfield

Q. 1. Why was Kezia scared of her father?

Ans:

Kezia's father was a busy man and had little time for the little girl. Being a very disciplined man, he was strict with Kezia as well and she would at times get harsh words of scolding and physical punishment from him. He never displayed any soft feelings for his little daughter nor did he play with her like Mr Macdonald. All he did was giving her a perfunctory kiss rather than a loving one. Moreover, he was a large man, and his size, too, terrified the little girl. So scared was Kezia of him that she felt relieved when he was gone from home.

He would wait for Kezia to help him take off his shoes and exchange a few words with Kezia.

Q. 4. What was Kezia's routine when Father returned from office?

Ans:

Q. 5. What was Father's and Kezia's morning routine?

Kezia was able to speak without stuttering to everyone in the household but her father. In her father’s formidable presence she could barely speak and she stuttered as she attempted to speak to him.

Ans:

Kezia’s father’s had a loud and domineering personality and he frequently frequent rebuked her for her behaviour and appearance. His constant criticism and scolding shook her self-confidence. Ans:
